

SFB1315 NEWSLETTER

Summer | Issue 5 | July 2019

Created by L. Pohl, L. De Mont

#GENERAL

(Link) "Data management made simple" - How to keep your research data freely available

#PHD_POSTDOC

Organisers Anne Voigt and Claire Cooper are looking for speakers for the upcoming PhD PostDoc meeting in July (tentatively 23) at BCCN

#GENDER

(Link) "NIH director will no longer participate in all-male panels"

Book recommendation: "The Gendered Brain" by Gina Rippon

(Link) "Inclusion of females does not increase variability in rodent research studies"

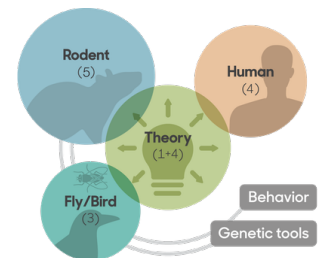

(Link) "Are hormones a female problem?"

(Link) "Variation of male and female rodents same in ephys/behavioural experiments"

#MEETINGS

Add your date/place preferences to the doodle polls for the late summer SFB social (see also #general)

SFB lecture series starting in the winter semester 2019 - Please send your speaker suggestions to SFB1315.ifb@hu-berlin.de

ANNOUNCEMENTS

11 July: Neuroscience Colloquium - Zoltan Monar
"Cortical layer with no known function"
17:00-18:00 Paul-Ehrlich Lecturehall

18 July: Neuroscience Colloquium - David Bennett
"Human pain channelopathies"
17:00-18:00 Paul-Ehrlich Lecturehall

22 July: Neuroimmunological Colloquium - Prof. Maarten Titulaer, "The spectrum of autoimmune encephalitis"
14:00-15:00 Charité Campus Mitte, Hufelandweg 6, Ferdinand Sauerbruch Hörsaal 4, 02-068

23 July: PhD-Postdoc meeting. Organized by A01 PhD Anne Voigt and C01 PhD Claire Cooper. 17:00 BCCN

End of August: SFB1315 summer social 10:00-16:00. (Date and location to be announced on #meetings)

30 September: LabTour Kick-Off by A01 AG Kempter. Organized by PhD Roberta Evangelista. 10:00-16:00 ITB, Philippstr. 13, Haus 4. (Updates will be posted on #phd-postdoc)

7-8 November: 2nd Annual SFB1315 Retreat
Seehotel Rheinsberg, Donnersmarckweg 1, 16831 Rheinsberg